Oration - Bureau (O. X.), 24 Jan. 1921

Arms - Vert. on a bend between two silver pendants or, three wheels of the field. Crest - A lion passant supporting with the dexter paw a flagstaff surmounted with a banner vert inscribed with a scroll or. Motto - Le monde est mon pays.

Residence - School, Lighthouse, Renta. Clubs - Ladies' Golfing, Royal Albert Club.

According to tradition three Huguenot brothers left France near their home in Abbeville, France in 1563, directly after the October Massacre. Revocation of the Edict of Nantes. They were seeking to escape the faith. Finding Haiti in a state of turmoil, they sailed for North America. They were shipwrecked just off the South Carolina - Florida coastline, finally landing at Port Royal, South Carolina. One brother is said to have returned to France. The other two stayed in America to start the American line of Dupre's.

See

The three brothers are Louis Justice, Jacques, and Cornelius Dupre.

We find proof that Justice was in Charleston. He was later naturalized there with his two sons, Cornelius and Cornelius.

Joliet, Ill.?

196?

Jacques was located later in Washington, Arlington County, Virginia.

Cornelius returned to France.

The Huguenot Society states that the original Justice and his wife Martin had seven sons: Justice II, Cornelius, Louis, and Jacques. Two of their several daughters were Martin, who married Francois Blanchard, and Mary Baker, who married Benjamin Jones. There is a record of a Samuel Dupre being buried before 1683 on Poplar Hill B. Creation - Baronet (U.K.), 24 Jan. 1921

Arms - Vert. on a bend between two calves passant or, three mullets of the field. Crest - A lion sejant supporting with the dexter forepaw a flagstaff ppr., flowing therefrom a banner vert charged with a mullet or. Motto - Le monde est mon pro'.

Residence - Bohunt, Liphook, Hants. Clubs - Junior Carlton; Royal Albert Yacht.

According to tradition three Huguenot brothers left from near their home in Abbeyville, France in a ship, directly after the October 22nd, 1685 Revocation of the Edict of Nantes'. They were coming to America via Haiti. Finding Haiti in a state of turmoil, they sailed out toward America. They were shipwrecked just off the South Carolina - Florida coastline, finally landing at Port Royal, South Carolina. One brother is said to have returned to France. The other two stayed in America to start the American line of Dupre'.

~~The~~

The three brothers are Louis Josias, Jaques, and Cornelius Dupre'. We find proof that Josias remained around Charleston. He was later naturalized there with his two sons Josias II and Cornelius.

Jaques was located later in Manakintowne, Henrico County, Virginia.

Cornelius returned to France.

The Huguenot Society states that the original Josias and his wife Martha had sons: Josias II, Cornelius, Samuel, and James. Two of their several daughters were Martha, who married Frances Blanchard, and Mary Esther, who married Benjamin Simons. There is a record of a Samuel DuPre' being buried before 1695 on Pompton Hill N. W. on the Eastern branch of the Cooper River and S. W. to Peter Fouré'.

The Huguenot Society has tracings of the Josias II DuFre' family and of the Cornelius line, but no trace of James or Samuel. With Samuel dead, only the James (Jaques) lineage is left.

Gen 2-Then came the brothers : Francis Dupray, Jean Dupray, Richard Dupray, Thomas Dupry, and Louis Dupray of Mannakintowne...as well as James(Jaques).

Gen 3-For this generation, the process of elimination by wills leaves us to James, Thomas, and Louis of Mannakintowne, later henriche County. Francis had no issue. Jean had one daughter Mary who married Frances Delpish. Richard had no named issue. Thomas married Margaret Esley(kin of the Huguenot Powell family) and had a large family. To date only one named son has been located - Thomas. The father Thomas died after 1737.

Gen4- Thomas, James, Jon, and Louis(Louis) Dupray. They migrated down through the Isle of Wight, Chesterfield, Lunenburg, and into Brunswick County, Va.

Gen 5-Louis Dupree(no doubt of the name now) named his children in two Deeds of Gift in 1792 and 1795. His sons: Jeremiah b. 6 Nov. 1754 in Brunswick County, Va., Cordall, Reed, and James who got the homestead plantation, the cattle, the home furnishings, and the GREAT BIBLE. His daughters: Elisabeth Gregory and Rebekah Horton. One granddaughter named: Dolly Dupree.

Gen 6-Reed Dupree, son of Louis, was b. ca 1764/66 according to the first year he paid his first tax in Brunswick Co., Va. He married Polly (Mary) Rives. Reed bought land in 1790 in Wilkes Co., Ga. He was J. P. in Washington Co., Ga. in 1801. His children were Priscilla, Caroline, Timothy, Jesse, Lewis, and Mary Ann Dupree. Reed died ca 1804/5 in Ga. or S. C.

Gen 7-Louis Dupree b. 2 Aug. 1801 and reared in Ga. and S. C. This line migrated to Texas.

Our James Duprey was b. ca 1847 in (it is said) Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio. He died 2 Dec. 1925 in Coshocton County, Ohio at the age of 78 of broncho pneumonia. His death certificate stated Tase. Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio as place of death. No cemetery marker or monument has as yet been found in Coshocton to determine place of interment. James married Caroline or Carlinda McFee. After James died, she married Robert E. Todd. It is the children of this James and Caroline McFee that concern us as their descendants. It might be interesting to note here that there are no Dupreys(any spelling) listed as having a telephone in Coshocton at present (Jan.1,1969).

CHARLES EDWARD DUPREY -(son of James & Caroline) b. 1875 Muskingum Co., Ohio. Died 23 Nov. 1919 age 44 in Coshocton, Coshocton Co., Ohio. He is buried in the SouthLawn Cemetery, 2RD-Lot 18-Row 4-Grave 4. There is no marker or monument to mark the grave. James Duprey is listed as his nearest relative. His grave may be found by finding a standing angel over Infant Susan grave.Charles is buried to the left of that marker. There are other Dupreys buried in South Lawn Cemetery.

HUGUENOTS

The Calvinists Protestants of France. The Presbyterian Church was founded in France at synod of 1559 and gained many followers among all classes. After the Wars of Religion (1562-1598) Henry IV promulgated the Edict of Nantes, which gave the Huguenots complete toleration and established Protestantism in two hundred towns. Cardinal Richelieu used an uprising (1621-22) against the introduction of Catholicism into Béarn as a pretext for depriving the Huguenots of all their strongholds save La Rochelle and Montauban. Another uprising (1625) led to the capture of La Rochelle by Richelieu (1628), and to the peace of Alais (1629), which stripped the Huguenots of all political power.

Mounting persecution of Protestants under Louis XIV culminated in 1685 with the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. Countless Huguenots fled to England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, and America, where they contributed substantially to civic and industrial life. In the Cevennes, the Protestant Camisards long fought Louis XIV's troops (1702-1710).

CAMISARDS

These were the Protestant peasants of the Cevennes, France, who rebelled against religious persecution (1702-1710). Successfully used guerrilla methods against superior forces prevailed. After defection of their leader Jean Cavalier, they fought on under Roland Laporte, but were slowly forced into submission.

C-N Offers Reward Of $500 in Slaying

The Commercial-News is offering a $500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the youth who murdered Mrs. Audrey Caudell in a robbery Jan. 17. Announcement was made today by Robert J. Burow, C-N publisher.

Mrs. Caudell died Jan. 24 in St. Elizabeth Hospital of complications brought on by the wound in her right abdomen. She was shot in her home at Hickory and Calumet Streets. The residence is south of the VA Hospital just outside the city limits.

"This is not just a mugging of purse-snatching — this is a stupid, senseless killing," said Sheriff Harlan Hosch today. He has given his full endorsement to the reward offer.

Mrs. Caudell was shot by a masked teen-ager about 9 p. m. The gun-wielding youth then picked up a purse near the sofa where Mrs. Caudell was sitting and ran.

Hosch revealed the purse was a family dog's plaything and contained nothing but some strips of ribbon. A purse containing money lay on a kitchen table but was not disturbed by the killer.

"We have several leads at this point," Hosch said, "but they are tough to check out."

"Our department is exhausting every resource and utilizing every available law enforcement agency to crack this case. All agencies are cooperating beautifully but we need leads," Hosch added.

Hosch said the home and surrounding area have been combed repeatedly for physical evidence. "We are now awaiting a report from the FBI ballistics lab in Washington, D. C., on the bullet removed from the body," Hosch said.

Mrs. Caudell, he said, made a short statement to deputies immediately after the shooting but "was in no condition to talk to us while hospitalized," Hosch added.

"Persons of this community should assist us in this investigation and bring the murderer to justice for their mutual protection," he said. She was sitting on the sofa when she heard a slight noise from the kitchen area.

She thought it was her son returning and called out, "What's the matter?"

The youth with a handkerchief over his mouth and nose said, "Keep your mouth shut and you won't get hurt. Hand over the purse."

Mrs. Caudell asked, "What do you want?"

Two shots "which sounded weak" rang out, and then a third. The third slug struck Mrs. Caudell.

The bandit then picked up the purse from the floor and ran through the kitchen and out the back door.

Mrs. Caudell's husband was asleep in the house when the shooting occurred. Her son was away from the house.

Mrs. Caudell described the youth who shot her as about 15, a Negro, and wearing a black jacket and shiny black gloves.

No New Leads in Slaying Of Woman

No new leads have been uncovered in the robbery-murder of Mrs. Audrey Caudell, Hickory and Calumet, according to the sheriff's department today.

Mrs. Caudell, 57, died at St. Elizabeth Hospital yesterday morning. She was shot in her home by a young bandit the night of Jan. 17. The youth, who wore a handkerchief over his face, then ran with Mrs. Caudell's purse.

The .22-caliber bullet found in the body has been sent to the FBI crime laboratory in Washington, D.C., for extensive tests.

Mrs. Caudell was conscious when deputy sheriffs arrived after the shooting. The home is just outside the city limits.

Persons with any information concerning the crime are urgently requested to call the county jail at 442-0153. All information

In Serious Condition

Woman Shot By Bandit

A Danville woman was seriously wounded last night by a masked, teen-age bandit who broke into her home, shot her, then fled with her purse.

Mrs. Audrey Caudell, 57, of Hickory and Calumet Streets, is in serious condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital today with a gunshot wound in the right abdomen.

Mrs. Caudell said the robber "was very young, about 15." He was wearing a handkerchief over his mouth and nose and carried a small gun," she said.

"I thought it (the gun) was a toy," Mrs. Caudell said.

Sheriff's department reports relate the following story:

Mrs. Caudell was sitting on a sofa around 9 p.m. when she heard a slight noise from the kitchen area.

Mrs. Caudell said she thought her son had returned home and called to him, "What's the matter?"

The victim said the youth told her, "Keep your mouth shut and you won't get hurt. Hand over the purse."

She asked him, "What do you want?" Mrs. Caudell said.

Whereupon two shots "which sounded very weak" rang out, Mrs. Caudell said, and then a third.

The victim said she felt the third bullet strike her.

The robber then picked up an old purse on the floor and ran through the kitchen and out of the house.

Mrs. Caudell called the Danville police department. The city police notified the sheriff's department. Mrs. Caudell's house is just outside the city limits.

The victim was sitting on the sofa and conscious when deputy sheriffs arrived.

She described her assailant as Negro and wearing a black jacket and shiny black gloves.

Contents of the purse is unknown.

Deputies Seek Youth

The death of a Danville woman today in St. Elizabeth Hospital has prompted sheriff's deputies to intensify their search for a youth who shot her in her home last Friday night.

The victim, Mrs. Audrey Caudell, 57, who lived at Hickory and Calumet Streets, died at 4:10 a.m. (Obituary on page 20). Her home is located south of the Veterans Administration Hospital. She suffered a bullet wound in the right abdomen about 9 p.m. Friday when a youth about 15 years old broke into her home, shot her and fled with an old purse.

A spokesman for the sheriff's office said today that no leads have been discovered as to the identity or location of the youth. Mrs. Caudell, found conscious on a sofa in her home after the incident, told authorities her assailant was a Negro about 15 years old wearing a black jacket, shiny black gloves and a white handkerchief over his nose and mouth.

She said he demanded the purse, then shot three times with a gun that Mrs. Caudell thought was a toy. Contents of the purse is unknown.

James Woodyard, chief investigator for the sheriff's office, issued an appeal to anyone having information on the case to contact the Vermillion County Sheriff's Office.

MRS. AUDREY CAUDELL

Services for Mrs. Audrey Mary Caudell, 57, of Danville Route 5, who died early Friday in St. Elizabeth Hospital of a gunshot wound inflicted by a young bandit who entered her home Jan. 17, will be at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Pape Memorial Home. The Rev. James J. Taylor will officiate, with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. Friends will be received at the funeral home 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. today. Mrs. Caudell had been head cook at the Children's Home the past four years.

Charles Edward Duprey first married Charlotte . in Saginaw, Saginaw, Michigan. They had one son who is thought to have been born in Pennsylvania. Charlotte and Charles lived for awhile in Indiana. There is also a Charles Duprey who married Etta Alice West 19 Aug. 1897 in Parke County, Indiana (volume 1). This could have been our Charles Edward or a nephew. His brother James had a son named Charles. It could not have been a son of our Charles Edward because he himself was only 18 years old when the other Charles married Miss West.

Charles Edward Duprey married second Ida Mae Walker, born 27 July 1903 in Danville, Vermilion, Ill.

She was born 24 March 1874 Danville, Vermilion, Ill.
died 4 June 1943 Danville, Vermilion Co., Ill.
buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Vermilion Co., Ill.

Ida Mae was married 4 times: 1/ James McKensie
She and James had one stillborn child.

- 2/ Charles Edward Duprey - 27 July 1903
- 3/ Arch Northway who died in the Joliet State Penitentiary
- 4/ Thomas Lynch who is buried at the cemetery in back of the Veteran's Home.

We are here concerned with the children and descendants of Charles Edward and Ida Mae (Walker) Duprey.
